CLARIFICATION ON ARTICLE PUBLISHED ON THE STRAITS TIMES

Yoma Strategic Holdings Ltd. (the “Company” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) refers to the article released by The Straits Times on 30 March 2025 titled “Singapore firms in Myanmar and Thailand confirm staff are safe, little or no damage to facilities” (the “Article”).

The Company wishes to clarify that while the Article mentions “short-term disruptions” and “temporary impact” on the Company’s businesses in the affected areas i.e., Mandalay, Sagaing and Naypyitaw, the Company’s current assessment is that the earthquake is not expected to have a material impact on the Group’s financials (including assets), operations and businesses. This is consistent with the statement in the Article that the majority of the Group’s business activities are primarily located in Yangon where the effects of the earthquake were limited.

The Company will continue to closely monitor the situation the situation in Myanmar, including conducting further assessments of its business activities, and will make any necessary disclosures in the event of material developments.
